Armstrong era nears end

Close the book on the Lance Armstrong era at the Tour de France. He has.

The record seven-time champion wrote off his chances of victory in his 13th and last Tour, signalling the beginning of the end of one of the most celebrated and controversial careers in cycling history.

The 38-year-old Texan's hopes for yet another title were dashed yesterday after he got caught in three crashes — one of which brought him down — and struggled to keep up during two tough climbs in Stage 8, the race's first foray into the Alps. He and his team said his hip got banged up, keeping him from pedalling hard.

The stage was won by 25-year-old Andy Schleck of Luxembourg, and Armstrong finished nearly 12 minutes back, in 61st place.

World champion Cadel Evans of Australia took the yellow jersey by finishing 10 seconds behind Schleck, but well ahead of overnight leader Sylvain Chavanel of France.

"My Tour is finished," said Armstrong, who fell to 39th overall.

NATUR-A: A BEVERAGE MADE FOR CHAMPIONS

When playing a sport we all focus on the importance of our training. But have you also considered how to feed and replenish your body's strength?

Follow the example of the champion Clara Hughes, who has been drinking soymilk for several years and still, at the age of 37, competes with athletes in their twenties! To be well prepared or to recover after a workout, what could be better than Natur-a, one of the most popular soy beverages in Canada? Soymilk is in fact a great source of energy for the body, containing protein, essential vitamins, minerals and calcium in every glass. Free from cholesterol and preservatives, the Natur-a's soymilk recipe has been proving it's worth since 1993!

Produced locally in Sainte-Hyacinthe and certified organic, Natur-a soymilk has no artificial ingredients and is also dairy-free. Being the only vegetable that is a complete protein, the soy bean is a great source of nutrition for athletes and a perfect one for vegetarians, vegans, and lactose-intolerant folks who still want to exercise and be athletic!

Available in a variety of flavors including unsweetened, original, vanilla, chocolate, and strawberry, Natur-a soymilk products all contain less sugar than milk, and that even includes the chocolate! So those with a sweet tooth can take pleasure in their glass of soy milk all the while staying healthy!

Low in fat, Natur-a is a perfect drink for world class athletes, many of whom, like Clara Hughes, drink it regularly. Every glass of Natur-a soymilk contains 45% of the recommended daily portion of vitamin D as well as 30% of your recommended daily calcium intake.

Since 2007, Health Canada has also recognized the benefits of soymilk, recommending that Canadians drink 2 to 4 glasses of soymilk per day. As rich as milk in essential nutrients this recommendation satisfies our daily calcium needs and helps maintain a balanced diet. Nutrisoya's healthy focus meets its community commitment by yearly providing thousands of free portions of Natur-a soymilk to youth athletes playing soccer, hockey, ringette and cycling.

How can you use soymilk?

Everywhere you would use milk! Simply use the same proportions and replace with soymilk ; it works great in cakes, soups, crepes, sauces, puddings, muffins, and anywhere else you can think of! And of course you can always have a tall glass of soymilk every morning or after every workout!

Follow the advice and recipes of champion Clara Hughes on Nutrisoya's website at www.nutrisoy.com or www.naturaplus.ca.

One serving of Natur-a chocolate soymilk contains only 15 grams of sugar compared to 29 grams in a glass of regular chocolate milk, in other words that is 14 fewer grams of sugar in every glass!
